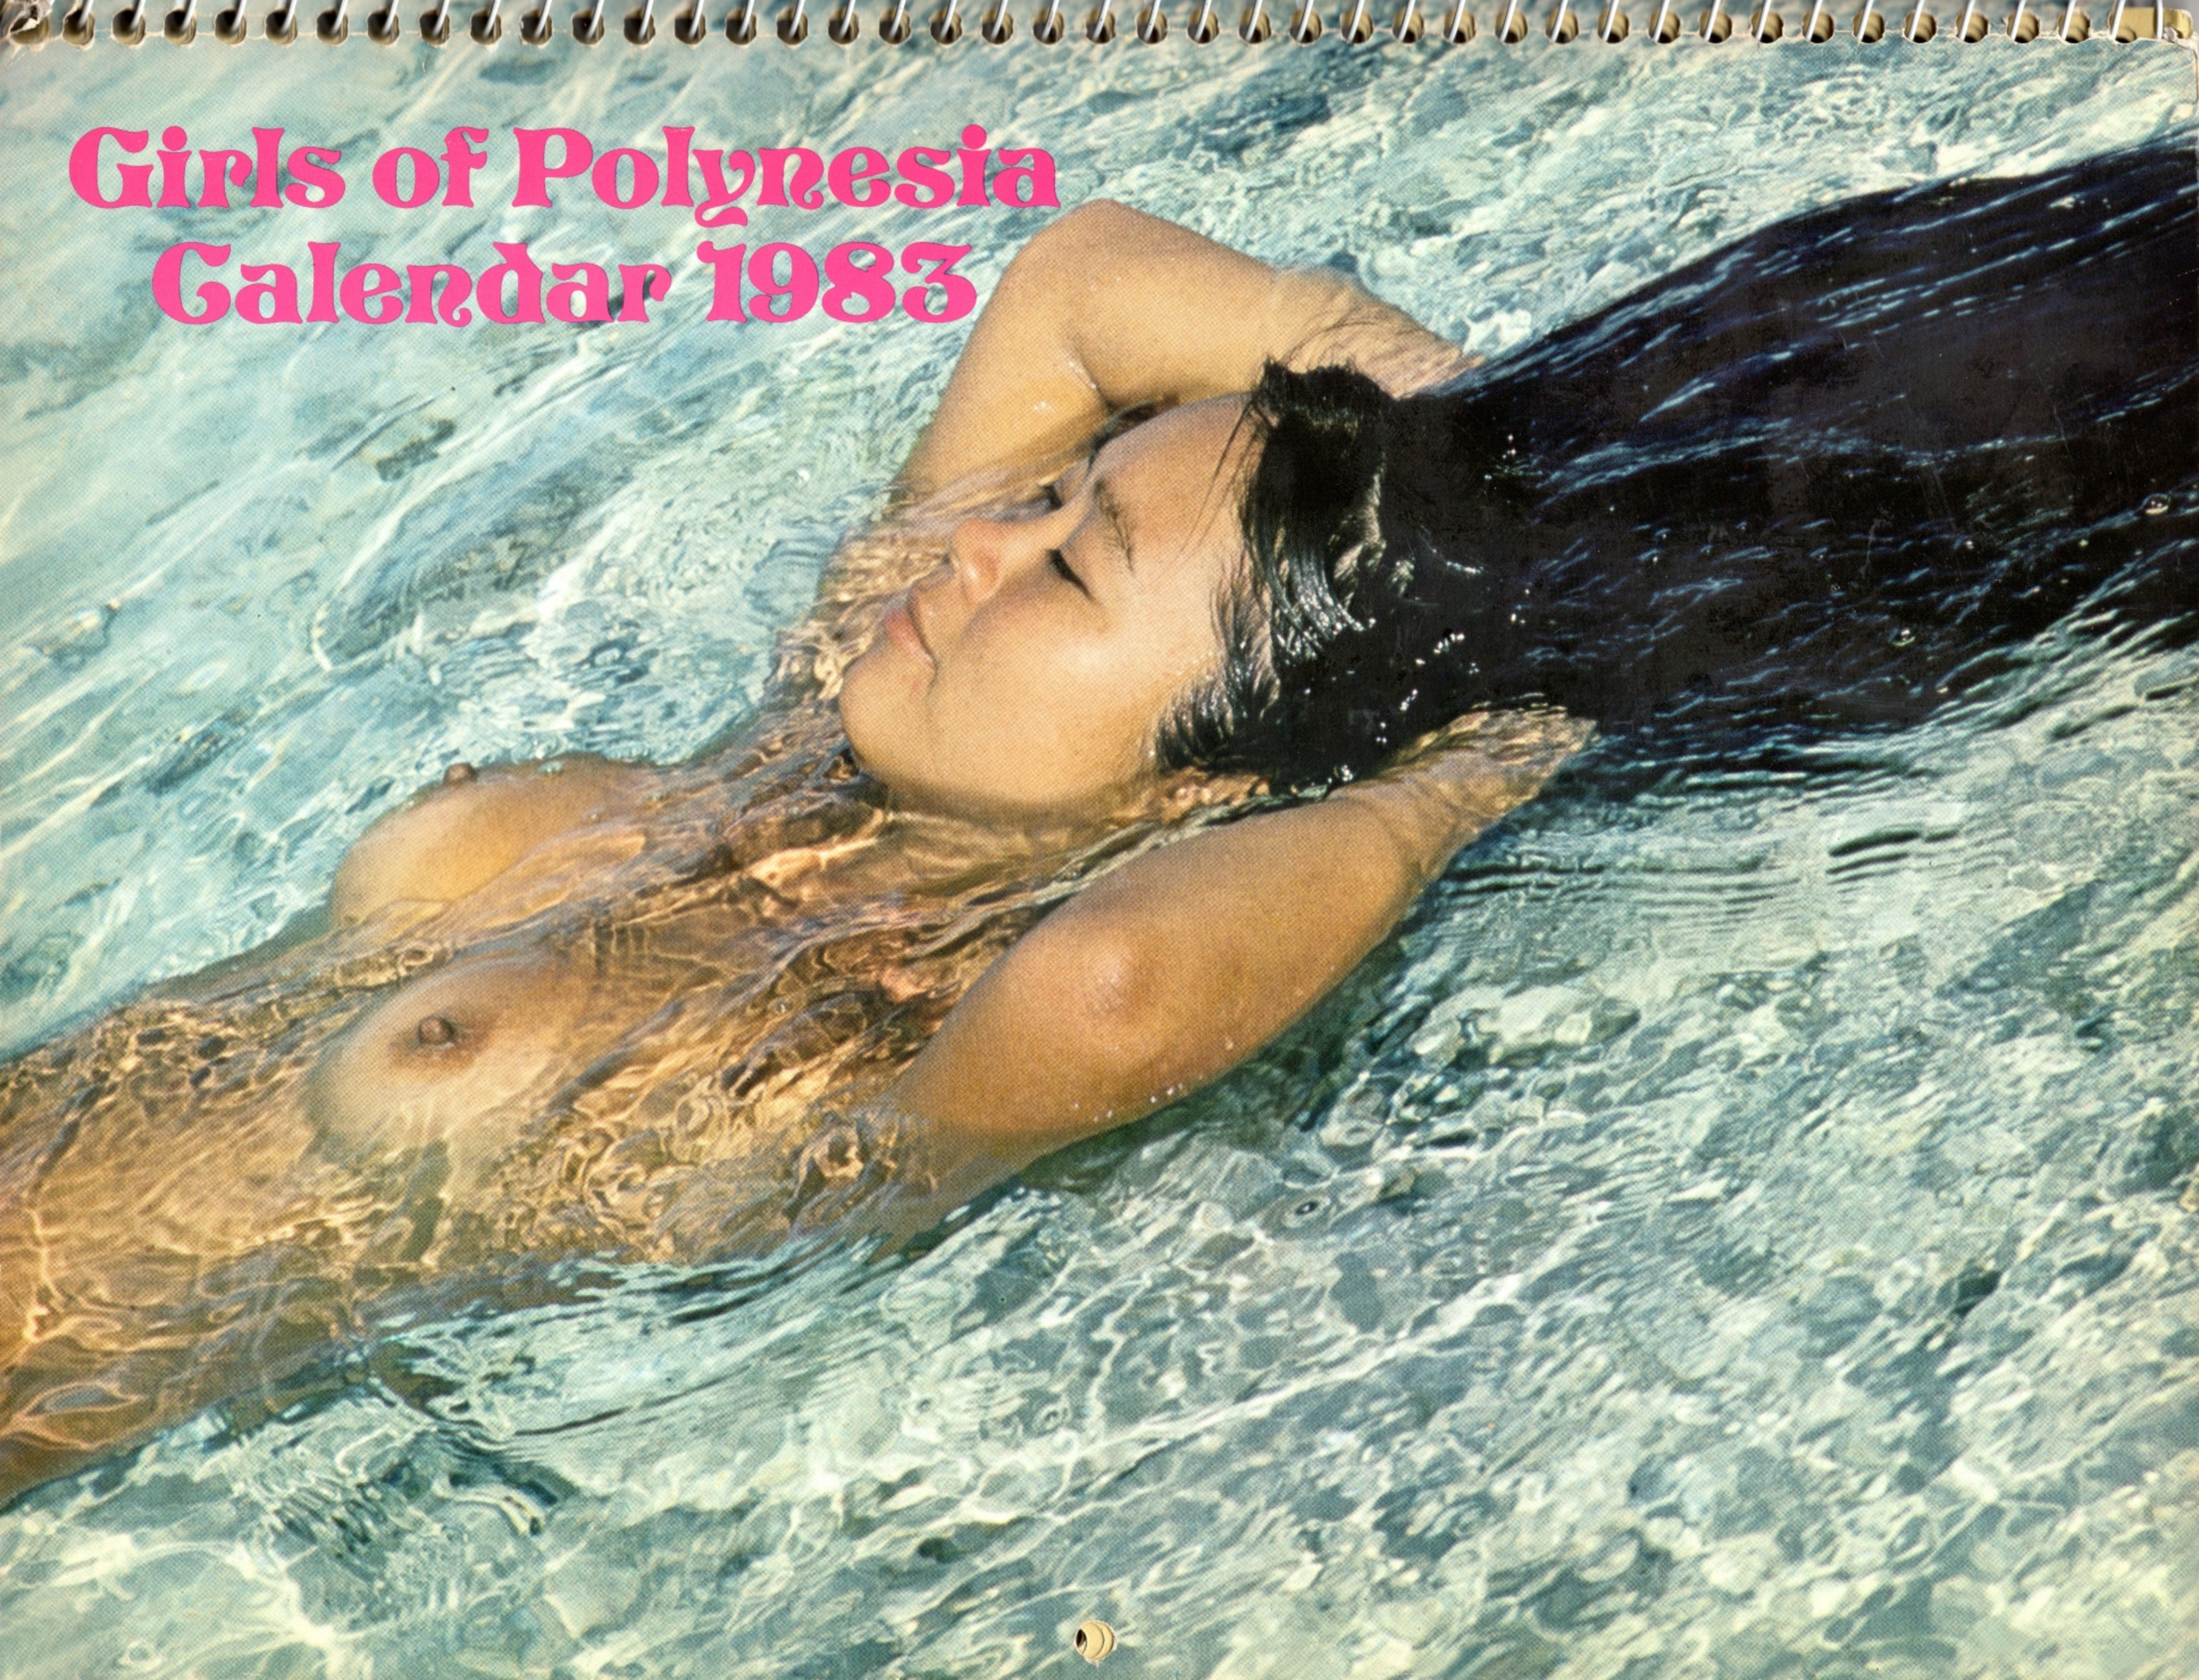
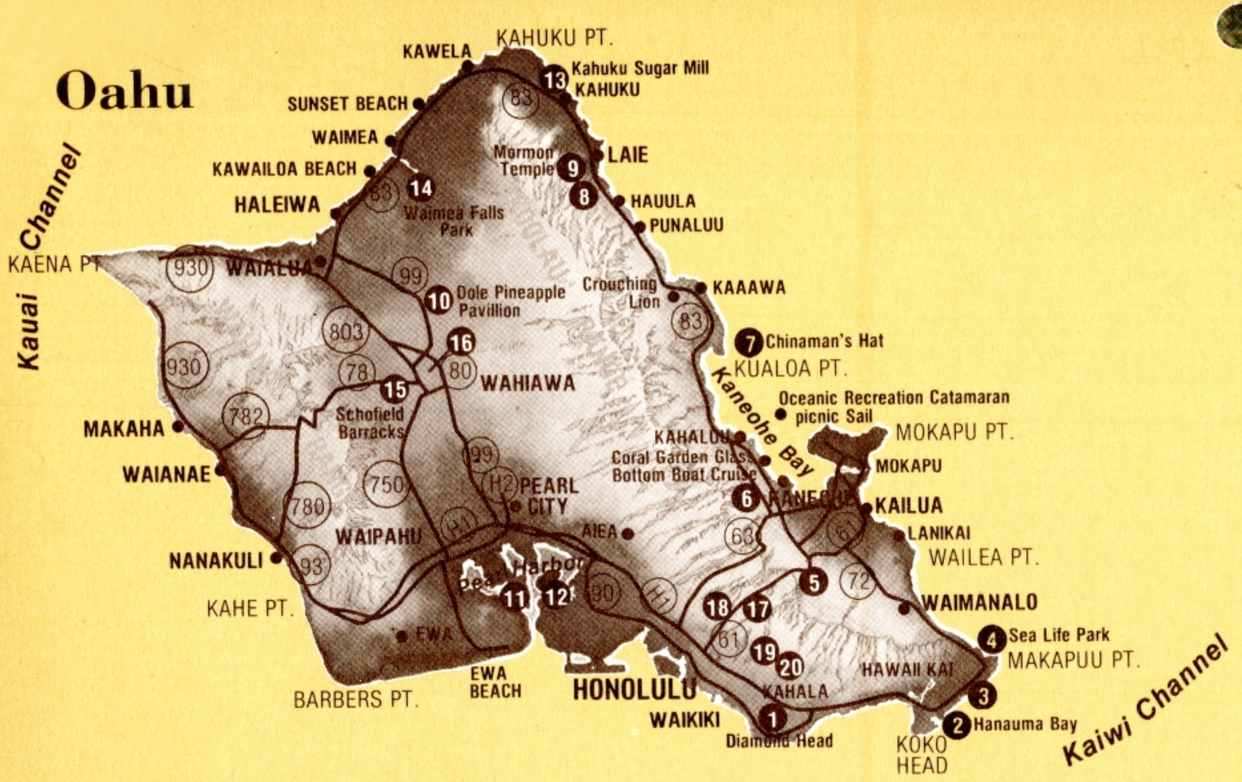
Girls of Polynesia Calendar 1983





POINTS OF INTEREST — OAHU

1. DIAMOND HEAD This extinct volcano crater was used for sacred ceremonies by ancient Hawaiians.
2. HANAUMA BAY Brilliant tropic beach, exotic reef lagoon filled with dazzling array of fish — a natural setting created centuries ago when crater rim fell into the sea. Beach and underwater park is paradise for sunbathers and snorkelers.
3. BLOW HOLE Unusual show by forces of nature, sending torrent of water screaming through ancient lava tube.
4. SEA LIFE PARK Porpoises, whales perform while sea lions, sea birds, giant turtles, sharks, living coral reef depict Hawaii's sea life.
5. NUUANU PALI LOOKOUT Unchallenged scenic view champion. Where Kamehameha drove Oahu king's warriors over the pali (cliff) in 1795.
6. BYODO-IN TEMPLE Lovely replica of centuries-old Japanese temple of Kyoto.
7. CHINAMAN'S HAT One look at this tiny island shape opposite popular Oahu beaches and you'll understand its name.
8. POLYNESIAN CULTURAL CENTER Unsurpassed for Polynesia in action. Authentic replicas of Polynesian villages where people of the Pacific islands demonstrate singing, dancing, games and exhibits.
9. MORMON TEMPLE Headquarters for Mormon Church of Hawaii. Narrated tours daily except Sunday.
10. DOLE PINEAPPLE PAVILLION Tasty pause to refresh in pineapple country. Spears, juice and take-home packages of Hawaii's delicious export.
11. PEARL HARBOR Natural harbor which made Oahu an important port, then became strategic military base. Center of U.S. naval operations in Pacific, America entered WW II after Japanese bombed Pearl Harbor December 7, 1941.
12. U.S.S. ARIZONA MEMORIAL Unique memorial marking the exact spot where 1,777 lives were lost when Japanese bombs sent the Arizona to the bottom of Pearl Harbor.
13. KAHUKU SUGAR MILL Old sugar mill which operated nearly 100 years, now restored with guided tours.
14. WAIMEA FALLS PARK Pleasant North Shore stop for sightseeing and dining. Lush nature park, hiking trails, exotic plant life, free electric tram to 55-foot Waimea Falls.
15. SCHOFIELD BARRACKS Home of Hawaii's Own 25th Infantry Division.
16. HAWAIIAN BIRTH STONES Hawaiian royalty came here for ceremonial births — sacred stones are still there.
17. QUEEN EMMA'S SUMMER PALACE Summer home of Kamehameha IV's wife, built in 1843, preserved as museum.
18. ROYAL MAUSOLEUM Resting place of Hawaii's royal familes. Open to visitors daily except Sunday.
19. SPALDING HOUSE Splendid gardens and rare Asian arts collection make the Alice Cooke Spalding House a remarkable experience.
20. EAST-WEST CENTER Sharing campus with University of Hawaii, this prestigious research and learning center was founded as link between Asian-Pacific and Western cultures.

POINTS OF INTEREST — MAUI

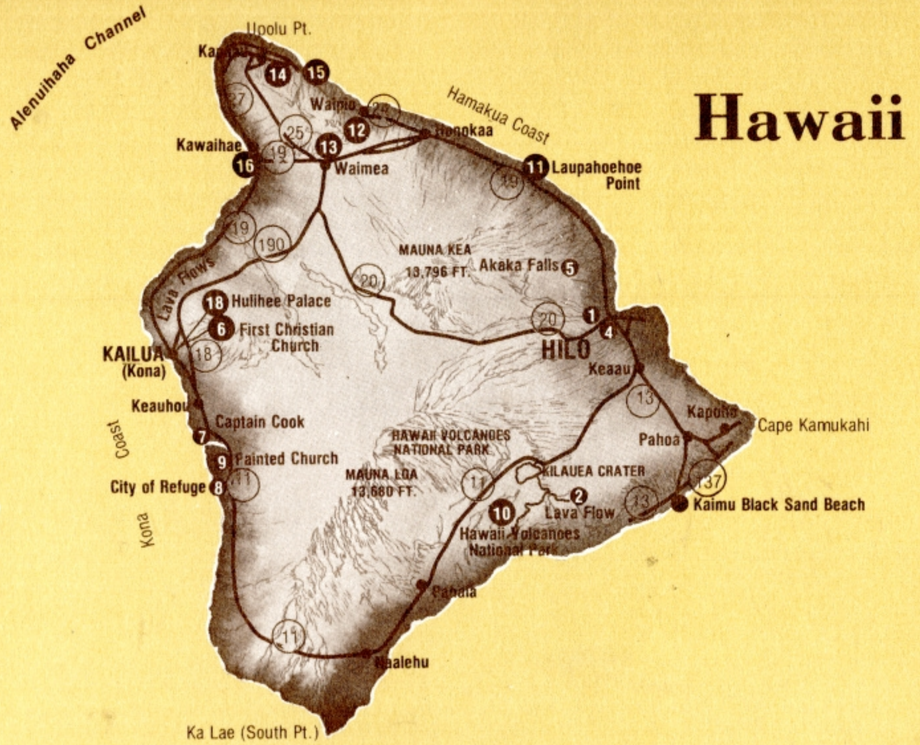
1. KAHANA BIRD SANCTUARY Each winter thousands of migratory birds make their way from the regions of the Northwestern U.S. across the Pacific Ocean to Hawaii where they make their winter home.
2. HALEKII HEIAU In 1819 an angry King Kamehameha II ordered these sacred temples of worship, sacrifice and refuge be destroyed. The heiau has been partially restored.
3. HALE HOIKEIKE Built in 1841, the Bailey Mission Home now houses the Maui Historical Society Museum. Here you will see fascinating displays from the many eras of Maui's past. Open daily except Sunday.
4. IAO VALLEY & IAO NEEDLE This valley was the scene of a battle in 1790 when Kamehameha I conquered Maui in the bloody Battle of Kepaniwai. The Iao Valley State Park is most famous for the Iao Needle, a strange spire of moss-green rock jutting 1,200 feet into the air.
5. KAAHUMANU CHURCH This is the oldest Congregational Hawaiian church of central Maui. Original section built in 1837.
6. KAIWALOA HEIAU Legends are still repeated about this ancient temple and the spirits that inhabit it.
7. HALE PAAHAO This is where drunken sailors from the whaling ships which visited Lahaina Town were imprisoned. The coral stone jail and wooden cellblocks were built in 1854 and original walls stand.
8. BANYAN TREE On April 24, 1873, this banyan tree was planted in the center of the town square to commemorate the 50th anniversary of missionary work in Lahaina. It is believed to be the oldest and largest banyan tree in Hawaii.
9. BALDWIN HOUSE Missionary physician Dr. Dwight Baldwin saved many Hawaiian lives during a smallpox epidemic in 1853. His home now is an excellent museum.
10. LAHAINALUNA SCHOOL Oldest school west of the Rocky Mountains, it was built in 1831 by young people who became its first students.
11. HALE PA'I On this quaint old press, still located on the Lahainaluna School grounds, Hawaii's first newspaper was printed in 1834.
12. KAANAPALI BEACH RESORT Kaanapali Beach Resort is widely praised as one of the best examples in Hawaii of good resort planning. Excellent resort and recreational facilities, including golf, tennis, riding, swimming.
13. KAANAPALI BEACH As best-selling guide book author Robert W. Bone observed, "One of the first things you'll notice about Kaanapali Beach is how really gorgeous four long miles of gently curving, wide, sand can be."
14. WHALER'S VILLAGE MUSEUM Marvelous collection of antiques and artifacts recalling those boisterous, adventurous years when Lahaina was one of the most colorful whaling ports in the world.
15. KAPALUA BEACH Some beach connoisseurs grade this as one of Hawaii's finest beaches.
16. KAUMAHINA PARK As the halfway point on the long, curling, scenic drive from Kahului to Hana, this is the prime place to pause and picnic.
17. WAILUA LOOKOUT This vista point provides a brillant view of the entire Keanae Peninsula and its fabulously beautiful coastline.
18. PUAA KAA PARK There are a couple of waterfalls and natural pools which make this roadside park a delightful place to stop for rest or nourishment on the road to Hana.
19. WAIANAPANAPA STATE PARK & CAVES Camping and rustic cabins. Underwater swimming in the caves. Exceptionally bold swimmers can reach a large, inner cave.
20. SEVEN POOLS Water pours from one pool into another until it finally reaches the ocean.
21. HALEAKALA NATIONAL PARK Watching the sunrise from the 3,000-foot rim of the crater is an experience. The floor of Haleakala is 25 square miles and contains a fascinating array of richly colored cinder cones. Hiking and horseback trips into the crater are exciting excursions.

Kauai

POINTS OF INTEREST — KAUAI

1. BOTANICAL GARDENS The oldest island in the Hawaiian chain is lushly represented in three magnificent botanical gardens; (a) assortment of tropical flora is displayed at Olu Pua Gardens in Kalaheo; (b) Menehune Gardens in Nawiliwili are named for Kauai's famous "little people" of Hawaiian legend; (c) Paradise Pacific in Wailua has 31 acres of flowers, shrubs and island plant life — and an open tram for guided tours.
2. CAPTAIN COOK'S LANDING, WAIMEA BAY On Jan. 20, 1778, the intrepid British explorer Captain James Cook, searching for a sea passage through North America, first discovered the Sandwich Islands when he landed at this point in Waimea Bay.
3. FERN GROTTO Riding by boat along the Wailua River, you reach the Fern Grotto. Here a beautiful cave is blanketed with fabulous ferns growing upside down and hanging from the top of the cave.
4. HANALEI VALLEY LOOKOUT From the sensational viewpoint you gaze down on a sweeping scene, a panorama of taro patches, sugar cane, rice paddies, and the Hanalei River.
5. HANAPEPE VALLEY LOOKOUT Rich, red cliffs and sharp color accents give this valley a subtle canvas-look of greens and blues.
6. KALALAU VALLEY LOOKOUT From a viewpoint elevation of 4,000 feet you stand at the sight of this vast valley reaching in splendor towards the distand sea.
7. KOKEE PARK Picnic grounds, cabins, hiking trails, riding, trout fishing, natural history museum. Kokee Tracking Station is located nearby.
8. KUKULIOLONO PARK & GOLF COURSE This park south of Kalaheo was once a private estate. Now open to the public at all times, with nine holes of public golf.
9. LUMAHI BEACH Would you like to "Wash That Man Right Out of My Hair? This lovely spot was the Nurses' Beach where Mitzi Gaynor sand that suddsy song in the popular movie, "South Pacific."
10. MENEHUNE DITCH Ruins remain of what was once a sophisticated water, or aqueduct, system. Archeologists say it was built even before the Hawaiians came.
11. MENEHUNE FISH POND, NIUMALU Portions still remain of what were remarkably well-built stone walls, with the fish pond they enclosed still in use today. Legend says the Menehunes — "little people" — built the walls in one night. Archeologists remain baffled.
12. OLD RUSSIAN FORT The Russian flag flew over this lava rock fort built near the mouth of the Waimea River in 1817 by an employee of the Russian Fur Company of Alaska. Ruins of the fort are all that remain.
13. OPAEKAA FALLS Opaekaa, meaning "rolling shrimp," dates from the days when swarms of shrimp could be seen rolling in turbulent waters at the base of these falls.
14. POIPU BEACH South Kauai's most gorgeous beach. Good swimming, snorkeling, surfing, picnicking.
15. ROYAL BIRTHSTONES, WAILUA Hawaiian women of royal nobility felt it was essential that they reach these sacred stones before giving birth so they could insure that their offspring would be born into royal statues.
16. SLEEPING GIANT The outline of a mountain ridge should take on the striking resemblance of a reclining giant.
17. SPOUTING HORN During high tides, waves of water are sent shooting through lava tubes and pressured through a hole in coastal rocks — ending in fountains of spray and foam, and a weird sound.
18. WAIMEA CANYON Called Hawaii's Grand Canyon, the grandeur of this canyon will make you forget it's located on a relatively tiny island such as Kauai.
19. WAIOLI MISSION HOME This quaint home was built in 1834 and restored by descendants of the first missionaries.
20. WAIPAHEE FALLS These falls form a natural rock slide and pool, but are accessible only by cane field road and trail.
21. WET AND DRY CAVES OF HAENA These weird, eerie caverns — one dry, the other filled with limpid green water — are where chiefs are said to have gathered in ancient Hawaiian Times to discuss mysterious matters.

Hawaii



POINTS OF INTEREST — ISLAND OF HAWAII

1. RAINBOW FALLS Spectacular falls make a thundering dive into a gorge. Early morning sunshine will produce the best quality of rainbows.
2. PUNA LAVA FLOW The Big Island of Hawaii is the only Hawaiian island where volcanoes still erupt, and this is one of the more recent lava flows.
3. KAIMU BLACK SAND BEACH The Big Island's most famous Black Sand Beaches — pulverized lava rock, ground finely into sand by ocean waves.
4. LYMAN MISSION HOUSE AND MUSEUM Built in Hilo in 1839, it has been lovingly restored and now contains a collection of historical exhibits from ancient Hawaii and missionary times.
5. AKAKA FALLS This famous waterfall north of Hilo plunges more than 420 feet in a sheer drop over a volcanic cliff.
6. FIRST CHRISTIAN CHURCH Was built by American missionaries when they first landed on this scenic coast in 1820.
7. CAPTAIN COOK MONUMENT This was erected as a tribute to the British navigator who discovered the Hawaiian Islands and was killed on this shoreline in 1779.
8. CITY OF REFUGE City of Refuge is said to have been constructed in 12th century as an asylum for criminals or prisoners of war. By reaching these hallowed grounds ahead of pursuing warriors, refugees could escape death.
9. PAINTED CHURCH St. Benedict's in Honaunau, the first Catholic Church of Hawaii, is one of the most unusual in the world.
10. HAWAII VOLCANOES NATIONAL PARK Incredible volcanic formations, dense forests of giant tree ferns, smoldering craters, strange lava tubes, and an excellent volcanological museum with free color movies daily and exhibits which explain the fascinating story of live volcanoes.
11. LAUPAHOEHOE POINT One of the Hamakua Coast's most scenic and historic spots.
12. WAIPIO VALLEY Spectacular 2,000-foot gorge north of the town of Honokaa which was once the home of kings of old Hawaii.
13. PARKER RANCH Founded in 1819, this 325,000-acre ranch, with some 70,000 head of cattle, is the second largest family-owned cattle ranch in the U.S. Located at the foot of Mauna Kea.
14. ORIGINAL KAMEHAMEHA STATUE The original statue of Kamehameha, who conquered the Islands, was cast in Florence in 1880 — and then lost at sea en route to Honolulu. A replica was later erected in Honolulu. Then the original was retrieved from its watery grave and installed at Kohala.
15. POLOLU VALLEY This valley in Kohala was once the site of ancient sacred temples which are still to be found throughout the Islands.
16. PUUKOHOLA HEIAU Rebuilt by Kamehameha I for his War God in 1791, this is where Kamehameha launched his battles to conquer the Islands.
17. LAVA FLOWS A unique part of the Big Island of Hawaii. The many fiery flows from past eruptions of volcanoes, dating back centuries and continuing up to today, are marked and dated by Warrior signs.
18. HULIHEE PALACE Built in 1838 of coral and lava, this home by the sea in Kailua-Kona was the summer retreat of Hawaiian royalty. It is now a museum.
